Eurasian Natural Resources Corporation PLC

ENRC Ferrochrome Seminar

ENRC will today hold an analyst and investor seminar in London on the ferrochrome industry. The seminar aims to provide a greater insight into the ferrochrome and ferroalloys industry and will feature a broad range of topics including: demand side drivers in stainless and alloy steel; the market dynamics of chrome ore and high carbon ferrochrome; and the markets for low and medium carbon ferrochrome including supply and demand fundamentals.

No non-public price sensitive information will be disclosed at the seminar.

The London seminar will take place at the City Presentation Centre. The seminar will commence at 15.00, hosted by the ENRC Sales & Marketing team led by Jim Cochrane. The seminar will also be available as a live audio webcast on the Investor Relations website at www.enrc.com and a recording will be posted on the website later.

The seminar will be repeated in New York on Friday, 22 February 2008, at The Four Seasons Hotel, commencing at 7.30 am.

Attendance at the seminars will be limited by invitation to registered participants.

Forward looking statements

This document includes forward-looking statements that reflect the current views of the Company's management with respect to future events. These forward-looking statements include matters that are not historical facts or are statements regarding the Company's intentions, beliefs or current expectations concerning, among other things, the Company's results of operations, financial condition, liquidity, prospects, growth, strategies, and the industries in which the Company operates. Forward-looking statements are based on current plans, estimates and projections, and therefore too much reliance should not be placed upon them. Such statements are subject to risks and uncertainties, most of which are difficult to predict and generally beyond the Company's control. The Company cautions you that forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and that if these or other risks and uncertainties materialise, or if the assumptions underlying any of these statements prove incorrect, the Company's actual results of operations, financial condition and liquidity and the development of the industry in which the Company operates may materially differ from those made in, or suggested by, the forward-looking statements contained in this document. In addition, even if the Company's results of operations, financial condition and liquidity and the development of the industry in which the Company operates are consistent with the forward-looking statements contained in this document, those results or developments may not be indicative of results or developments in future periods. The Company does not undertake any obligation to review or confirm analysts, expectations or estimates or to release publicly any revisions to any forward-looking statements to reflect events that occur or circumstances that arise after the date of this document.
